IN ALL ITS TIME, NEDBANK HAS ALWAYS INVESTED IN ONE THING.

THE FUTURE.

Of all the concerns facing us today, caring for our fellowman is probably the most pressing. Nedbank have been following this path for some one hundred years, with involvement in such fields as education, social services for the aged, the underprivileged, the sick and the handicapped.

Cultural organisations and animal welfare groups also fall under the caring wings of Nedbank.

A healthy and happy future is an important investment and at Nedbank we have always believed in making that commitment.

HIS HOLINESS POPE JOHN PAUL II
KAROL WOJTYLA

Vicar of Jesus Christ
Successor of the Prince of the Apostles
Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church
Patriarch of the West
Primate of Italy
Archbishop Metropolitan of the Roman Province
Sovereign of the State of the Vatican City
Servant of the Servants of God.

Born in Wadowice (Cracow), 18 May 1920; ordained priest in Cracow, 1 November 1946; appointed to the Titular See of Ombi, 4 July 1958, and consecrated 28 September 1958; promoted to Cracow 13 January 1964; created Cardinal 26 June 1967. There followed in Rome on 16 October 1978, his election to the Pontificate; the solemn commencement of his ministry as Universal Pastor of the Church: 22 October 1978.

VATICAN CITY

By virtue of the Lateran Treaty concluded between the Holy See and the Italian Government on 11 February 1929, the right of the Pope to rule absolutely in his own territorial possessions was recognised by the State. These territorial possessions of the Holy Father constitute Vatican City and within their limits the Sovereign Pontiff's authority is recognised as complete and supreme.

LIST OF ROMAN PONTIFFS

The following list is compiled by acknowledged authorities, basing their compilation on the 'Liber Pontificalis' and emendations made therein from time to time in the light of the new findings made by historical science. The names given in brackets are those of anti-popes. The years are the years of accession.

ST PETER, PRINCE OF THE APOSTLES

who received from Our Lord, Jesus Christ Himself, the Supreme Pontificate, and which he transmitted to his successors. His See was first established at Antioch; then, in the year 42, finally at Rome. It was here that he was martyred on the 29 June 67.

HIERARCHY OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Catholic Church is a structured society. It is organised along the following lines for purposes of pastoral service and orderly government and administration.

The Pope is the supreme head of the Church. He has primacy of jurisdiction as well as honour over the entire Church and all of its members.

Bishops, in union with and in subordination to the Pope, are the successors of the Apostles for the care of the Church. They serve the people of their own dioceses with ordinary authority and jurisdiction. They also share, with the Pope and each other, in common concern and effort for the general welfare of the whole Church, and in various ways act in concert with the Pope and each other in a collegiate manner.

Bishops of exceptional status are Eastern Rite patriarchs who, subject only to the Pope, are heads of the faithful belonging to their rites throughout the world.

Subject to the Holy Father and directly responsible to him for the exercise of their ministry of service to people in various jurisdictions or divisions of the Church throughout the world are: Resident archbishops and metropolitans (heads of archdioceses), resident bishops (heads of dioceses), vicars and prefects apostolic (heads of vicariates apostolic and prefectures apostolic), certain abbots and prelates, and apostolic administrators. Each of these, within his respective territory and according to the provisions of canon law, has ordinary jurisdiction over pastors (who are responsible for the administration of parishes), priests, religious and lay persons.

Also subject to the Holy Father are titular archbishops and bishops (who have delegated jurisdiction), religious orders and congregations of pontifical law, pontifical institutes and faculties, papal nuncios and apostolic delegates.

Assisting the Pope and acting in his name in the central government and administration of the Church are cardinals and other officials of the departments of the Roman Curia.

THE SYNOD OF BISHOPS

In virtue of a document entitled "Apostolica Sollicitudo" issued on his own initiative on September 15, 1965, Paul VI provided for the establishment of a Synod of Bishops to advise the Pope on matters pertaining to the welfare of the universal Church. This enactment founded the Synod as a juridical body having the nature of an ad hoc committee of representative bishops which the Pope can activate and call into session at any time.

* The purposes of the Synod are: "To encourage close union and valued assistance between the Sovereign Pontiff and the bishops of the entire world; to ensure that direct and real information is provided on questions and situations touching upon the internal action of the Church and its necessary activity in the world of today; to facilitate agreement on essential points of doctrine and on methods of procedure in the life of the Church."

* The Synod is a central ecclesiastical institution, perpetual by nature.

* It is directly and immediately subject to the Pope, who has authority to assign its agenda, to call it into session, and to give its members deliberative as well as advisory authority.

* In addition to a limited number of ex officio and a few religious participants, the majority of members are to be elected by, and be representative of, national or regional episcopal conferences. The Pope reserves the right to appoint the secretary general, special secretaries, and no more then 15 percent of the total membership.

The Synod met for the first time on 29 September 1967. After that in October 1969, 1971, and thereafter every two years.

During the Second Vatican Council, Pan-African Malagasy meetings developed spontaneously to bring African perspectives to bear on the issues of the Universal Church. Six African members of the Congregation for the Evangelisation of Peoples convened a meeting to discuss how African bishops could organise themselves to respond to the Council. The visit of Pope Paul VI to Uganda gave the Symposium its orientation: "You may and you must have an African Christianity."

SECAM has a Standing Committee composed of the President, two vice Presidents and a member from each of the nine Regional Associations of Episcopal Conferences.

HISTORY OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN SOUTHERN AFRICA

The long story of Christian influence on what would later be called Southern Africa began with the arrival of Portuguese mariners led by Bartholomew Diaz early in 1488. On 12 March, they erected a padrâo, or limestone pillar, topped by a small cross near the mouth of the Bushman's River on the eastern Cape coast and a Mass was offered. It is recorded that a small church was built in 1501 in Mossel Bay. There is no evidence, however, of any missionary work in present day South Africa during these early days.

Between 1652 and 1795, under the Dutch East India Company rule, Catholicism was forbidden in South Africa. Only occasional visits of priests travelling on Portuguese or French boats were allowed. The same attitude prevailed between 1795 and 1802 under the British rule. In 1804, the Batavian (or Dutch) government opted for religious toleration, under the influence of the ideas of the French Revolution. Three Dutch priests arrived in Cape Town. But they were sent back to Holland when the Cape returned to the British rule two years later.

In 1814 the Cape became a British colony. The Catholic community only got recognition from the British Government in 1820. A priest, Fr. Scully, was accredited and a church was built in Harrington Street, Cape Town. In 1837, at the request of the Cape Town community, the Holy See appointed an Irish Dominican, Patrick Raymond Griffith, as the first Bishop of South Africa. Under his guidance the Catholic Church began to grow. This missionary expansion had one important limitation: very little attention was given to the African population. The priority was to provide for the needs of the European settlers. They were to be the main beneficiaries of the network of schools, hospitals and orphanages that developed throughout the colony with the assistance of several congregations of sisters.

In 1847, the Eastern Cape Vicariate was created. Aidan Devereux, one of the best missionaries of the time, became its first vicar apostolic. It is he who invited the first religious sisters to South Africa. In 1850, I the Natal Vicariate, which included at the time the Orange Free State, the Transvaal and Lesotho, was entrusted to the newly-founded congregation of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. The Bishop, Jean-François Allard, had been instructed by his superior general to start missionary work among the Zulus. In 1854, a mission station was established near the Umkomaas River, but due to various obstacles it was closed six years later. The second attempt among the Amacele on the Umzimkulu River also failed. In 1861, Bishop Allard, accompanied by Fr Gerard, travelled to Lesotho. Despite the presence of the Paris Evangelical Mission Society which had been there since 1835, they obtained from King Moshoeshoe, the founder of the Basotho nation, a mission site which they called Roma. The Lesotho Mission was to become one the strongest Catholic communities in Africa.

In the mean time, a Premonstratensian missionary, Jacobus Hoendervangers, had begun to work in Bloemfontein. When diamonds were found on the banks of the Vaal River, Fr Hidien, an Oblate, went to visit the camps, say Mass and administer the sacraments. In 1875, a church was built at Pilgrim's Rest in the Transvaal for the Catholic diggers. Other mission stations were opened as new gold fields were discovered and in 1886 the Holy See erected the diamond fields and Lesotho into a new Vicariate and the Transvaal into a Prefecture. In 1887, the Prefect Apostolic, Odilon Monginoux, took up residence in the newly-erected town of Johannesburg.

So far very little had been done for the indigenous people, in South Africa at least. The Protestant missionary societies, active in the region since the beginning of the century, were far ahead of their Catholic counterparts. The first significant results came with the Trappists of Mariannhill in the 1880's. Under the leadership of Abbot Francis Pfanner, they developed innovative missionary methods, combining farming, schooling and preaching. These efforts eventually led to conversions, contributing to the growth of Catholicism in Natal.

In 1925 the first South African born bishop, David O'Leary, was consecrated in Johannesburg and the following year, another South African, Cornelius Bernard O'Riley, became the Vicar apostolic of Cape Town. But the South African Church still relied heavily on expatriate clergy. It was only in 1948 that a national seminary (for whites) was founded. In 1951, when Pope Pius XII established the hierarchy in Southern Africa, not more than five out of twenty one bishops were born locally.

The process of Africanisation of the Southern African Clergy has also been slow to develop. The first four African priests had been ordained at the turn of the century, but it was only in the 1920s in the Diocese of Mariannhill, that the first concerted efforts were made to train a black clergy. This led to the establishment of a national seminary for blacks in 1947. The first black bishop, Emmanuel 'Mabathoana, was consecrated in Leribe in 1953, followed by Bonaventure Dlamini in Umzimkulu in 1954.

Despite its late coming on the missionary scene, the Southern African Catholic Church has shown remarkable signs of growth throughout the 20th century, particularly just before and after the Second World War. Long seen as a foreign church, it has now gained influence in all sectors of society. According to the 1991 census, at least 7.5% of the South African population (not including the TBVC states), and probably more given the large number of unspecified responses, are Catholic. The Catholic Church has become the second biggest church in the country (after the DRC). It ranks first among the Blacks if one excepts the African Independent Churches, which are not one church but loose collections of perhaps 3 000 churches. It is reckoned that about 80% of its members are black. In Lesotho, the percentage of Catholics is considerably higher (49% according to church sources) than in South Africa. It is lower in Swaziland (6%) and Botswana (4%), Namibia (16%).

Like most Christian churches, the Catholic Church was relatively slow in opposing apartheid. It laboured at the cost of the heritage of segregation that it had shared with the rest the church in most pre-liberation colonial situations.
During the first decades of Nationalist rule, the hierarchy often adopted a conciliatory stance towards the government in the hope of maintaining the church's network of schools, hospitals and welfare institutions. When in 1953 the government struck at church schools for African children with its Bantu education Act, the Catholic Church fought desperately to retain the educational system which it saw as its major aid to evangelisation. The Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference, created in 1947, made its first pronouncement against racism in 1952 and in 1957 condemned apartheid as "intrinsically evil". Until the late 1970s however, there were few acts of defiance against the state. Within the church itself, a de facto discrimination was practised at many levels,.

In 1970s, under the influence of the Vatican Council and spurred by protests from black clergy, catholic opposition to apartheid started to intensify. In 1972 a move began to desegregate the seminary. In 1976 the decision was taken with regard to both seminaries and schools. The Soweto uprising of 1976 led to a still greater awareness among Catholics for more active Catholic participation in various manifestations of Christian protest, activated mainly by the South African Council of Churches and the Christian Institute. Since February 1990, priority is given to conflict resolution, education to democracy and development.

HISTORY OF THE CATHOLIC DIRECTORY 1904 - 1994

According to our own records the earliest publication of the Catholic Directory was in 1896 when it appeared in the Catholic Magazine of South Africa on pages 463, 583 and 584. Within the next few months this Directory appeared in a separate publication along with articles and line drawings of the main churches at the time. It was compiled by Fr. Alban O'Riley of Cape Town.

In 1896 the first group of the Salesians of Don Bosco arrived in Cape Town at the invitation of Bishop John Leonard (1871 - 1908). The Salesians, under the superiorship of Fr. Tozi, established the Salesian Institute of Arts and Crafts with departments of carpentry, cabinet-making, printing and bookbinding at 49 Buitenkant Street, Cape Town.

Information for a Catholic Directory was collected in 1903 and the following year "The Catholic Directory of British South Africa for the year of Our Lord, 1904 was published by them.

In the Archives of the Catholic History Bureau we have the issues of 1908, 1911, 1913, 1916 and 1921 with further issues from 1930 onwards, all published by the Salesian Press.

An indication of the progress of the Church in the country can be gained from the earlier directories which at the time numbered one hundred pages and cost one shilling and sixpence each. They listed 291 priests and nearly two thousand religious, while today there are 1391 priests in a volume of 393 pages at far a higher price.

These earlier directories included not only South Africa but the territories north of the Limpopo and Zambezi, staffed by the Jesuit missionaries, the Zimbabwe and Zambia areas of today.

A directory is usually of interest in the current year but it is of far greater interest as the years go by. To read these earlier issues not only recalls those pioneer missionaries but to study the details of events and activities is of greater interest.

A feature of those earlier issues was "WHAT HAPPENED LAST YEAR" and among many other events we find:-

> "The Catholics of Fort Beaufort held the Golden Jubilee of their church which had been blessed by Bishop Moran on 28th January 1857."

The Salesian Press is to be commended for the many years it published the Directory. As from 1976 it has been published by the Commission for Social Communications of the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference in Pretoria.

THE SOUTHERN AFRICAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS' CONFERENCE (SACBC)

The Church in Southern Africa under the Nunciature consists of thirty ecclesiastical territories.

Because of the missionary nature of the work of the Church in Southern Africa, the Archdioceses, Dioceses, Vicariates and Prefectures still fall under the direction of the Sacred Congregation for the Evangelisation of Peoples in Rome.

The Conference is an association of Local Ordinaries, other than Vicars General, of the Roman Catholic Church in the Republic of South Africa, Namibia, Botswana and Swaziland, their coadjutors, auxiliaries and other titular Bishops who perform special work entrusted to them by the Apostolic See, or by the Conference itself.

The Conference is primarily a consultative body and its resolutions outside the cases mentioned below have no binding force on the Ordinaries or their subjects except in so far as individual Ordinaries consent to support them.

In terms of paragraph 38, No 4 of the Decree of the Vatican Council on the Pastoral Office of Bishops "Christus Dominus", decisions of the Conference are juridically binding only when prescribed by the Common Law, or specified by a special mandate of the Holy See given "Motu Proprio", or in response to a petition from the Conference. They are made in due form by two-thirds majority of those present, and are reviewed by the said Holy See.

The SACBC is empowered to set up departments (Departments, Offices, Associate Bodies and Forums) for the fostering of special objects and activities in accordance with clearly defined terms of reference but without legislative power. Their work is directed by the Administrative Board which acts as the Standing Committee of the Conference.

The Chairmen of the Departments constitute the Administrative Board of the Conference.

REGIONAL PASTORAL CONFERENCES

The Constitution of the SACBC also says that "it shall be in order for pastoral regional groups of Ordinaries, recognised by the Conference, to come together for consultation and action, within the general context of Conference policy and concern, on matters of particular interest to the Region".

This aspect of Church life has developed further in that at present various bodies have been set up to cope with specific pastoral needs especially where it concerns the needs of language groups.

SOUTHERN AFRICAN COUNCIL OF PRIESTS (SACOP)

The Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference, at its meeting in Cape Town on 3 September 1970, decided to establish a provisional council of priests for Southern Africa.

The first meeting of this provisional council took place at Pretoria in December 1970. On 9 December 1970, the provisional council decided that a permanent council of priests should be established. In July 1971, the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference accepted the Constitution of the Southern African Council of Priests and established the Council as a permanent one. A revised constitution was approved in January 1985.

In the words of the Constitution:

"The purpose of the Council shall be to promote, in hierarchical communion, an effective sharing of responsibility in the mission of the Church". To this end, the Council shall serve as:

* An instrument for close co-operation with the SACBC in matters of general concern;

* A forum for the exchange and co-ordination of the views of priests regarding the mission of the Church, in a spirit of true brotherly unity;

* An agency for dealing with problems affecting the personal life and ministry of priests;

* A medium of helpful collaboration with other legitimately constituted apostolic groups, especially those operating at national level;

* A means of co-operating with Christian and non-Christian bodies in the development of ecumenical activities.

The priests of South Africa, Namibia and Swaziland are all represented on the Council through delegates from their respective dioceses, on the basis of one delegate per 50 priests, or part thereof.

In 1986, links were made with the international "Assembly of Priests' Representatives", Room 218, 1307 S.Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60605 U.S.A.

The present Executive Committee consists of:

BISHOPS' LENTEN APPEAL

After Vatican II the Bishops of Southern Africa have encouraged the Church on the local and national level to become increasingly self-reliant. One practical step towards this goal has been the annual appeal to all the faithful during the six weeks before Easter to contribute in a special way towards "the work of the church and the poor" in the Dioceses of Southern Africa. The response has been generous and is increasing every year.

The largest proportion of money received goes to the poor. Other money goes towards educational projects: bursaries, teacher salaries, priestly formation, Bible translation work and distribution, catechetical formation, Ecumenical projects, etc.

Each Diocese has its own director and they meet once a year with the national director to plan the programme of the following year.
Applications for aid from the fund are received and channelled via the Diocesan Directors, the offices of the SACBC or the office of the National Director: Fr Noel Coughlan OMI, PO Box 50057, Musgrave Rd, Durban 4062. Tel: (031) 28 2732.

PONTIFICAL MISSION SOCIETIES (PMS)

1. The Society for the Propagation of the Faith was founded at Lyons in 1822 by a group of lay people, among whom the central figure was Marie-Pauline Jaricot. With papal encouragement, it spread to the different dioceses of France, then to other European countries and later to America. Since 1928 it has been set up progressively in mission countries too, and at present it exists in 101 countries. So as to give it wider scope and a more universal character, pontifical status was granted to the Society on 3 May 1922, and its central administration was transferred to Rome. It thus became the Church's official organization for mission aid for 938 Dioceses. Collection is taken on the second last Sunday of October.

2. The Society of the Missionary Childhood was founded in 1843 by Bishop de Forbin-Janson of Nancy. From the very beginning it received the support of the Holy See, and quickly spread throughout France, to the other European countries and to America. Recently it has been set up also in several mission countries, and today it is organized in about 90 countries. Its central administration was in Paris. It was given pontifical status on 3 May 1922 and transferred to Rome in 1987. Collection is taken on the first Sunday of February.

3. It was in France as well, at Caen 1889, that Stephanie Bigard and her daughter Jeanne founded The Society of St Peter the Apostle. With the support of the Holy See, it too, spread to the majority of dioceses in Europe and America. Its central administration was transferred to Rome in 1920, and it was officially given pontifical status on 3 May 1922. It is closely linked to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Collection is taken on the first or last Sunday of August.

4. The Pontifical Missionary Union (Unio Cleri pro Missionibus) was founded in Italy in 1916 by Fr Paolo Manna. It received papal approval from the beginning and rapidly spread to the majority of dioceses in the world. It is organized in more than 50 countries at present. It received official pontifical status on 14 April 1937. Though founded originally as an association of priests, its scope was enlarged on 14 July 1949 to take in religious Brothers and Sisters. Its central administration is in Rome. Membership Sunday: Collection in May.

THE SOUTHERN AFRICAN CATHOLIC DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION (SACDA)

The SOUTHERN AFRICAN CATHOLIC DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION (SACDA), an Associate Body of the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference, exists to serve the interests of Catholic social service organizations and institutions in South Africa, Botswana, Namibia and Swaziland

The establishment of the South African Council for Catholic Social Service in 1970 was an attempt by the Catholic hierarchy to bring about co-ordination within a fragmented social service network. With the change of name to Southern African Catholic Development Association decided on by members present at the Biennial Conference and Meeting of 1992, SACDA entered a new phase in its history.

In striving to be aware of and responsive to all aspects of development, SACDA aims to:

* assist diocesan development structures

* provide support for diocesan development efforts through an active regional development network

* encourage co-operation with other bodies in the field of development

* support and encourage the work undertaken by SACDA affiliates and sub-committees

* act as an official channel of communication in matters of church policy on social and development issues.

It is recognized that development goes beyond projects and products and is a process through which individuals and groups strive to reach their full human potential. For this to happen, procedures and structures need to be in place. These ensure continuity and growth and foster sustainability and selfsufficiency. The focus of SACDA's work is to assist groups, particularly at diocesan level, to organise themselves in such a way as to meet the objectives for which they exist, after having established themselves and having made link into the SACDA development network. This network is made up of six regions in South Africa and also include Botswana, Namibia and Swaziland.

SACDA's bringing people together, in conference and workshop, to discuss development issues within the context of the Catholic church is an important function. Besides helping participants to understand the process of development, these gatherings expose participants to the broader spectrum of social issues within the Southern African context and provoke new attitudes and actions in the service of people.

SACDA engages members of the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference in debates about the burning social issues affecting the lives of the people they serve. In so doing, SACDA aims to assist the Bishops in their commitment to the people through clearly defined church policies on issues such as land and housing, HIV/AIDS, and the role of women. SACDA provides opportunities for people to articulate their needs and in so doing provides and important background for policy-making on the part of the Catholic Bishops' of Southern Africa.

Regional representatives include: Bishop H N Lenhof SAC.
Elected representatives from the following regions: (1) Southern, Western and Northern Cape; (2) Eastern Cape; (3) Orange Free State; (4) Northern Transvaal; (5) Southern Transvaal; (6) Natal; (7) Botswana; (8) Namibia; (9) Swaziland; and (10) Lesotho.

(Province of Bloemfontein)

PATRON:
The Immaculate Heart of Mary

Prior to 1924 this territory formed part of the Kimberley Vicariate. From 1924 it was known as the Kroonstad Vicariate. Mgr Klerlein retired in 1948, with the creation of the new Vicariate. He was succeeded in 1950 by Mgr Peter Kelleter CSSp, who resigned on 5 July 1975.

ARCHDIOCESE OF BLOEMFONTEIN

Suffragan Sees: Kimberley, Kroonstad, Keimoes-Upington, Bethlehem, Gaborone

PATRON:
The Sacred Heart of Jesus

Originally the area of the Orange Free State was part of the Vicariate of Natal, which was established by the Holy See on 5 October 1850, extending from the Kei River in the South and to Quillemane in the North and confided to the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. Bishop JE Allard OMI, was appointed the first Vicar Apostolic. Consecrated in Marseilles, France, on 13 July 1851.

The Zambesi Mission to the North of the Limpopo was confided to the Society of Jesus in 1879. Then in 1886 the remaining territory under Bishop C Jolivet OMI, was subdivided into the Prefecture of the Transvaal and the Vicariate of the Orange Free State, comprising the Free State, Basutoland and the Diamond Fields; on the north and on the west, the Vaal River; and on the east the Drakensberg Mountains. The new Vicar Apostolic, Bishop Anthony Gaughren OMI, (consecrated in Tower Hill, London on 10 August 1886) would reside at Bloemfontein. Bishop Q Devereux of Grahamstown had sent Father R Hoenderwangers, O.Praem. to visit Bloemfontein in 1850 and he took up residence there in 1852, remaining as the pioneer priest of the Free State until his return to Belgium in 1869, when his place was taken by Father Le Bihan OMI, and later by Father V Bompart OMI.

When Bishop A Gaughren arrived in November 1886 the train terminus from Cape Town was Kimberley and so he took up residence there, travelling regularly by post cart to Bloemfontein and on to Basutoland. Kimberley remained the Episcopal Residence for his successors, Bishop Matthew Gaughren OMI (1902-1914) and Bishop HJ Meysing OMI (1924-1951). During the interregnum (1914-1924) Bishop C Cox OMI, of the Transvaal was Administrator Apostolic.

On 11 January 1951, by Papal Bull, Pope Pius XII established the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy in the Union of South Africa, and set up the Ecclesiastical Province of Bloemfontein.

The Archdiocese includes the civil districts: Bloemfontein, Boshof, Brandfort, Dewetsdorp, Edenburg, Fauresmith, Jacobsdal, Philippolis, Reddersburg, Smithfield, Thaba Nchu, Trompsburg, Wepener, Zastron, and portion of Ladybrand, Hoopstad and Winburg.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CAPE TOWN

Suffragan Sees: Aliwal, De Aar, Oudtshoorn, Port Elizabeth, Queenstown

PATRONS:
Our Lady of the Flight into Egypt
St Patrick

From the time of the discovery of the Cape, ecclesiastical jurisdiction over it appertained to the Portuguese missionary authorities. After the settlement of the Cape in 1652, the practice of the Catholic religion was prohibited by the civil authorities.

Commissioner General De Mist, by an Ordinance of 25 July 1804, declared that "all religious societies which for the furtherance of virtue and good morals worship an Almightly Being, are to enjoy in this Colony equal protection from the laws ...." and in 1805 three Dutch priests arrived to minister to the Catholics of the Cape. One of them, Father Johannes Lansink, was appointed Prefect Apostolic. The following year the military authorities ordered them to leave.

In February, 1818, Pope Pius VII erected the Vicariate Apostolic of the Cape of Good Hope and adjacent territories. Subsequently the Island of Mauritius was added, and the first Vicar Apostolic, Right Reverend Bishop Bede Slater, OSB, having called at the Cape, went to reside there. He was succeeded by Rt. Reverend Bishop William Placid Morris, OSB, who also resided at Mauritius.

On 6 June 1837, Pope Gregory XVI constituted the Cape of Good Hope a separate Vicariate and appointed Rt. Reverend Bishop Patrick Raymund Griffith, OP, as the first resident Vicar Apostolic.

In 1847, the Vicariate of the Cape of Good Hope was divided into the Vicariates of the Western District and the Eastern District of the Cape of Good Hope.

On 24 May 1872, the Prefecture of the Central District of the Cape of Good Hope was detached from the Western Vicariate.

By decree of the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda Fide dated 13 June 1939, the name of the Western Vicariate was changed to the Vicariate of Cape Town.

On 11 January 1951, Pope Pius XII established by Papal Bull the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy in the then Union of South Africa, and set up the Ecclesiastical Province of Cape Town, comprising the Metropolitan Church of Cape Town, with the suffragan sees of Aliwal, Oudtshoorn, Port Elizabeth, Queenstown and De Aar.

By the same Papal Bull, the Most Reverend Archbishop Owen McCann was appointed to the Metropolitan See of Cape Town.

The Archdiocese is bounded on the west by the Atlantic Ocean, on the north by the southern boundries of the Van Rhynsdorp district, on the east by the western boundaries of the Calvinia, Ceres, Tulbagh, Worcester, Robertson and Swellendam districts and on the south by the Indian Ocean. The civil districts within the ecclesiastical area are: Cape, Wynberg, Simon's Town, Bellville, Somerset West, Stellenbosch, Paarl, Wellington, Caledon, Bredasdorp, Malmesbury, Piquetberg, Clanwilliam. The Islands of Tristan da Cunha, Ascension and St. Helena belonged to the Archdiocese of Cape Town until 18 August 1986 when they were given to the care of the Mill Hill Fathers.

ARCHDIOCESE OF DURBAN

PATRONESS:
Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception

This territory was erected as the Vicariate of Natal on 5 October 1850, extending "from the Kei River, that is, from the boundary of the Eastern Vicariate of the Cape of Good Hope, to Quilimane, that is, the Eastern extremity of Portuguese territory, and interiorly to the Tropic". It was confided to the Oblates of Mary Immaculate.

The vague delimitation of boundaries prompted many queries on the part of the first Vicar Apostolic, Bishop Allard, who finally interpreted them as extending northwards as far as the tropic of Capricorn and excluding Portuguese territory. On 15 March 1876 a clarification was issued to Bishop Jolivet establishing the boundaries of the Natal Vicariate as following the line of the coast from the Kei River to Quilimane, then along the 18th degree of latitude south, down the 18th degree of longitude east, and finally along the course of the Orange River and the frontier of the Cape Colony, leaving British Kafraria in the Eastern Vicariate.

This huge territory was divided soon afterwards when the Zambesi Mission was confided to the Society of Jesus in 1879. There followed in 1886 the erection of the Vicariate of the Orange Free State (comprising the Free State, Basutoland and the Diamond Fields); and the Prefecture of the Transvaal. In 1921 further divisions were made with the creation of the Vicariates Apostolic of Mariannhill, Eshowe, and Swaziland.

On the establishment of the Hierarchy on 11 January 1951 the Vicariate Apostolic of Natal became the Archdiocese of Durban. In 1958 the northern section of the Archdiocese was detached to form part of the Prefecture Apostolic of Volkrust, now the Diocese of Dundee.

The Archdiocese of Durban comprises the civil districts of Camperdown, north of the Umlaas River, (except the farms of Mariannhill, Klaarwater, Dassenhoek, Welbedag and portion of Stockville), Durban, Estcourt, Inanda, Kranskop, Lions River, Lower Tugela, Maphumulo, Umvoti, Weenen, Bergville and part of Msinga.

(Province of Durban)

The Prefecture of Zululand was erected on the 27 August 1921 and entrusted to the Benedictine Congregation of St Ottilien. Before that time it had formed part of Natal Vicariate. On 11 December 1923 it was raised to the status of a Vicariate under the title of "Vicariate Apostolic of Eshowe". With the establishment of the Hierarchy in South Africa it became the Diocese of Eshowe on the 11 January 1951. This Diocese now comprises Zululand proper, (with the exception of the districts of Ingwavuma, Ubombo and Hlabisa)), and the four Natal districts of Vryheid, Paulpietersburg, Ngotshe and Babanango. It is bound on the East by the Indian Ocean, on the South by the Tugela River, on the West by the Tugela, Buffalo, Blood and Didusini Rivers, and in the North by the Pongola and Umfolozi Rivers.

PATRONESS:
The Immaculate Conception

The territory of the Transvaal was under the jurisdiction of the Vicar Apostolic of Natal, Mgr M F Allard, OMI, from 5 October 1850. As early as the year 1854, Holy Mass was celebrated at Mooi River, now called Potchefstroom, by a travelling priest. According to the law then in vogue "no other religion but that of the Dutch Reform Church was allowed within the South African Republic", but occasional visits were made by priests from Natal and the Free State, until in 1869, Rev Fr Le Bihan, OMI, was appointed to that area. He was immediately responsible for the abolition of this law and subsequent freedom of Catholic worship.

In 1886, the Transvaal was separated from Natal and erected into an ecclesiastical Prefecture, under Rt Rev O Monginoux, OMI (1886-91), who died 28 November 1917. He was succeeded by Rt Rev A Schoch, OMI (1892-1898). The Rev John De Lacy, OMI, acted in the interim until 1902, when Bishop Matthew Gaughren, OMI, Vicar Apostolic of Kimberley, also served as Administrator of the Transvaal.

The Transvaal became a Vicariate in 1904, with Bishop W Miller, OMI, as first Vicar Apostolic. The territory has since been subdivided, first in 1910, when the northern part was confided to the care of the Benedictines; then in 1923, when the Lydenburg Prefecture was formed under the Missionaries Sons of the Sacred Heart; then in 1948 when the Pretoria Vicariate was erected, and finally in 1965 when the Prefecture of the Western Transvaal was handed over to the Oblates of Mary Immaculate of the Belgian Province.

It comprises the following civil districts: Johannesburg, Alberton, Balfour, Benoni, Boksburg, Brakpan, Delmas, Germiston, Heidelberg, Kempton Park, Krugersdorp, Nigel, Oberholzer, Randburg, Randfontein, Roodepoort, Springs, Vereeniging, Vanderbijlpark and Westonaria.

With the creation of the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy in the Union of South Africa on the 11 January 1951, the Vicariate was raised to the status of a Diocese.

Area: 14 517 sq.km. Total Pop: 3 290 145 Cath Pop: 560 000

The Diocese is bounded on the West by the Diocese of Klerksdorp; on the South by the Vaal River; on the East by the Lydenburg-Witbank Diocese and the Diocese of Dundee; and on the North by the Archdiocese of Pretoria.

Former Ordinaries: Rt Rev William Miller, OMI was consecrated Bishop of Eumenia and Vicar Apostolic of the Transvaal 20 November 1904, resigned 1912, died 8 November 1927. Rt Rev Charles Cox, OMI was ordained Bishop of Dioclea, appointed Vicar Apostolic of the Transvaal Vicariate 28 October 1914, resigned 1924, died 9 March 1938. Rt Rev David O'Leary, OMI was ordained Bishop of Phesseitan, appointed Vicar Apostolic of the Transvaal Vicariate 8 September 1925, retired 8 December 1950, died August 12 1958. Most Rev William Patrick Whelan, OMI was ordained Bishop of Legia, appointed Coadjutor Bishop of the Transvaal Vicariate 27 May 1948. He succeeded as Vicar Apostolic 8 December 1950 and was appointed Bishop of Johannesburg Diocese 11 January 1951. Transferred as Archbishop of Bloemfontein in July 1954, he died 10 February 1966.

Rt Rev Hugh Boyle was appointed Bishop of Port Elizabeth 11 January 1951, and transferred to the See of Johannesburg 18 July 1954. He resigned 2 May 1976 and died 12 December 1986.

The Maronite Church was founded in Johannesburg in 1908. The Maronite Church is an Oriental Church belonging to the Syriac Liturgy of Antioch ascribed to St James the Apostle. The Liturgical Language is Syriac or Aramaic, while the vernacular has always been in use.

Vatican Council II in the decree on the Eastern Catholic Churches recommends the preservation and growth of each individual church and directs that "Those who, by reason of their office or an apostolic assignment, are in frequent communication with the Eastern Churches or their faithful should, in proportion of their task, be carefully trained to know and respect the rites, discipline, history and characteristics of Easterners."

The Pope in his "Motu Proprio" of 22 February 1949 published the section of the projected code of Oriental Canon Law which refers to marriage. The new laws abolish those previously in force and apply from 2 May 1949. They bind all persons of Oriental Rite all over the world. These marriage laws differ in many respects from Latin Rite Laws. Whenever a person of Oriental Rite comes to a Latin Rite priest to be married, he or she remains bound by the Laws of the Oriental Rite. The children follow the rite of the father, or of the Catholic parent in a mixed marriage. This is the case even where they have been baptised by a Latin Rite priest. The fact that they have been baptised and brought up exclusively in the Latin Rite does not exempt them from the laws of their own rite. (The Clergy Review, May 1949).

Evangelisation was begun by the saintly pioneer, the Rt Rev John Maria Simon, OSFS in 1898.

By the decree of the Sacred Congregation of the Propaganda dated 7 July 1909, Great Namaqualand was separated from the Orange River Vicariate and erected independent Prefecture; in August 1930 as a Vicariate. By a decree issued by the Sacred Congregation of the Propaganda Fide, dated 13 January 1949, the Vicariate became known as the Vicariate Apostolic of Keetmanshoop.

Boundaries are the Orange River to the South; to the East, the political boundaries of Namibia; to the North, the northern limits of the civil districts of Lüderitz, Gibeon, Rehoboth and the Atlantic Ocean in the West.

Predecessors were the Rt Rev Mgr P St von Krolikowski, OSFS and Rt Rev Matthias Eder, OSFS. Rt Rev Bishop Joseph Klemann, OSFS, the first Vicar Apostolic, died 20 March 1960. DIOCESE OF MARIANNHILL

(Province of Durban)

In 1882 Prior Franz Pfanner of the Reformed Cistercians (Trappists) intended establishing a Trappist Monastery and commencing the work of evangelisation among the local Africans. In 1885 he became Abbot of the new foundation which he called Mariannhill. He resigned from office in 1893 and was succeeded by Abbots Amandus Scholzig who died in 1900 and Gerard Wolpert. Abbot Franz Pfanner died on the 24 May 1909, and about the same time Rome separated the Mariannhill Abbey from the Trappist Order. Mariannhill was constituted an independent Missionary Congregation with the official title: The Congregation of Missionaries of Mariannhill (CMM).

In 1921 the Mariannhill Vicariate (up to then part of the Natal Vicariate) was erected and comprised the southern part of Natal and all Transkeian territories. It was sub-divided in 1930 and again in 1935. Those territories now form the Dioceses of Umtata and Kokstad and part of Queenstown. Divided again in 1954, the territory of the Diocese of Umzimkulu was detached.

Civil districts within the ecclesiastical boundaries of the Diocese of Mariannhill comprise Ixopo, Impendle, Richmond, Umzinto, Umbumbulu, parts of Port Shepstone, Camperdown and Pinetown, Polela and Underberg.

PATRON:
The Immaculate Heart of Mary

The Diocese of Oudtshoorn was established as the Central Prefecture by decree of the Holy See on 24 May 1872. It had been part of the Western Vicariate. On the 13 July 1874 it was entrusted to the "Missionaries for African Missions of Lyons". When the Fathers of Lyons left the Central Prefecture in 1882, the Western part of the Prefecture was given to the Oblates of St Francis of Sales and a new Prefecture erected in 1884. The Eastern part again came under the jurisdiction of the Vicar Apostolic of the Western Vicariate as the Central Prefecture until 1922, when it was separated from the Western Vicariate and entrusted to the Pious Society of Missions, now called the Society of the Catholic Apostolate (Pallottine Fathers).

On 13 June 1939, the Central Prefecture was changed to Prefecture of Oudtshoorn which was raised to the status of Vicariate on 9 December 1948. The Diocese of Oudtshoorn was constituted on the establishment of the Hierarchy, 11 January 1951. It has for its boundaries on the West, the eastern boundaries of Bredasdorp, Caledon, Paarl, Malmesbury, Clanwilliam, Van Rhynsdorp and Namaqualand districts; on the North, the southern boundaries of Kanhardt and Prieska districts; on the East, the western boundaries of Britstown, Richmond, Murraysburg, Aberdeen, Jansenville and Humansdorp districts; and on the South the Indian Ocean and the northern boundaries of Caledon and Bredasdorp districts. By Decree of the Holy See the districts Calvinia and Williston were separated from Oudtshoorn Diocese in 1979 and are now under pastoral care of Keimoes Diocese.

ARCHDIOCESE OF PRETORIA

Suffragan Dioceses : Johannesburg, Witbank, Manzini, Pietersburg, Klerksdorp, Tzaneen, Rustenburg

PATRONS:
The Sacred Heart of Jesus
Mother of Good Counsel

Bishop Jolivet, OMI, Vicar Apostolic of Natal, visited this distant portion of his vast mission and celebrated the first Mass in Pretoria on 8 June 1877. Later Lydenburg, Barberton, Pilgrim's Rest and the Witwatersrand were visited and centres established. Subdivision of the Vicariate of Natal ensued and Pretoria and surrounding districts formed part of the Prefecture Apostolic of the Transvaal (1886), which became the Vicariate Apostolic of the Transvaal (1904).

By Decree dated 9 April 1948, the Vicariate Apostolic of Pretoria was erected and confided to the secular clergy. Rt Rev Bishop J C Garner, PhD was consecrated Titular Bishop of Tracula, 31 May 1948, and appointed first Vicar Apostolic.

On 11 January 1951, Pope Pius XII established the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy in the Union of South Africa and set up the Ecclesiastical Province of Pretoria. Pretoria is the Metropolitan See of the Province.

PATRONS:
St. Peter Claver
St. Therese of the Child Jesus

By Papal Decree 12 June 1923, the Eastern Transvaal was separated from the Transvaal Vicariate and entrusted to Missionaries, Sons of the Sacred Heart (MSFC). In 1979 the MFSC rejoined the Verona Fathers (FSCJ) and are now known as the Comboni Missionaries of the Heart of Jesus (MCCJ).

The Lydenburg Prefecture was raised to the status of a Vicariate on 9 December 1948. Following the establishment of the hierarchy in South Africa,the Vicariate was raised to the status of a diocese on 11 January 1951.

On the 23 June 1958, a number of magisterial districts on the southern boundary of the diocese were excised and incorporated in the Volksrust Prefecture. On the 13 September 1964 the name of the diocese changed to Lydenburg-Witbank by papal decree and on the 10 November 1988 to Witbank.

The diocese comprises the magisterial districts of Barberton, Belfast, Carolina, Kamhlushwa, Lydenburg, Mapulaneng, Mhala, Middelburg, Nebo, Nelspruit, Nsikazi, Pilgrim's Rest, Sekhukhune, Waterval-Boven, White River, Witbank, and portions of Eerstehoek and Groblersdal. ON THE INCREASE OF THE CHURCH'S PASTORAL PERSONNEL AND SERVICES

On January 1st 1993, African had 684,660,000 inhabitants, of whom 95,613.000 are Catholics, with 21,754 priest (11,682 diocesan and 10,072 religious), 6,001 religious non priests, 45,014 women religious, 420 members of secular institutes, 1,881 lay missionaries and 285,526 catechists. As well as these there are 297 deacons (282 diocesan and 15 religious), 15,618 major seminarians (11,956 diocesan and 3,662 religious) and 41,594 minor seminarians ((37,322 diocesan and 4,272 religious)

In 1992 therefore we had an increase in Catholics of 3,535,000 with a rise in percentage: 0.11%, rising from 13.85% to 13.96%.

There has been an increase also in pastoral workers: 16 bishops, 986 priests (799 diocesan and 207 religious), 1,038 women religious, 489 lay missionaries and 21,412 catechists. Whereas numbers of religious non-priests have dropped by 72 units. The increase in proportion of Catholics caused a slight increase in the percentage of Catholics per pastoral centre, which went from 1,154 to 1,158.

There are 5,257 parishes and 72,303 mission stations, of which no less than 71,315 are without a resident priest. The problem of an insufficient number of priests is alleviated by an increase in major seminarians: 969.

The Church's service in education is carried out in: 6,634 infant schools with 611,168 children, 25,527 primary schools with 8,387,582 pupils and 4,831 secondary schools with 1,382,691 students. More than 28,891 high-school students and 1,519 university students as well as 2,287 other college students.

The Church's assistance and charity work extends over: 981 hospitals, 3,886 dispensaries, 266 leper colonies, 401 homes for handicapped and the aged, 646 orphanages, 743 children's homes and other centres to make a total of 13,000.

Given that almost the whole of Africa is under the care of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples, a comparison of statistics will help to measure the development of the Church in Africa. To June 30th 1957 in the territories under the CEP, there were 167,536,000 inhabitants of whom 17,784,175 Catholics, plus 2,958,143 catechumens, with 11,199 priests, 4,121 brothers, 19,532 women religious and 80,101 catechists, plus 1,523 major seminarians.
